

There are many consignment shops in and around Iredell, and there are frequently artworks for sale. Even though the shops are difficult to find, and we don't know of any in our neighborhood right now -- there is a gallery at the Signal Hill Shopping Center. It's at the Broad Street exit of I-77 north before I-40 west..

If you know of any others, don't hesitate to tell us. There's a submit area on the Home Page.
