

MUSIC, ACTING

The Statesville area has always been known for its musicality. Too numerous to list are the North Carolina Arts Council's performing groups in the area, under Iredell County. Both musical and other culturally accomplished artists can be accessed online: www.ncarts.org. And can be seen, especially in the summer. The local executive director, is at 203 S. Meeting Street, Statesville, NC.

Mitchell Community College and Statesville High School also host musicians throughout the year.
