

PEOPLE

This website didn't know if it should include present day people -- not likely -- or historical folks. We like people gone-by and this may also include genealogy. Iredell has a county library in Statesville, and there's a Mooresville Library, as well as new Troutman and Harmony libraries.

Whatever it means -- we all have memorable folks in mind. They've gone before us, but they're not forgotten.

Here's an example: "I flagged down a train, with my suitcase in hand, to get a certificate from Appalachian State College."

Do you have some? Let us know at SUBMIT, home page of Iredellwatch.org.
